

EuroPharm Forum

Venue: Hotel Devín Congress Centre

- Workforce and Migration
 - E-pharmacy

Bratislava, 13 October 2007

- Programme

Further Developing the Professionalism of the Pharmacist in Light of Migration

09.00 – 09.30	Registration
09.30 – 10.00	Welcome address Slovak Minister of Health Briefing on Background, Purpose and Expected Outcome Ms Inger Lise Eriksen, Norway, President EuroPharm Forum
10.00 – 12.00 (Coffee break included)	Health Workers – the Interface between Health Systems and the Community; Global Trends Affecting the Workforce Chair: Luc Besançon, France <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ WHO perspective on Human Resources for Health▪ FIP Pharmacy Workforce and Migration – drivers, actions and directions Tana Wuliji, FIP – International Pharmaceutical Federation▪ Respondents commentaries Responses: Igor Minarovic, Slovakia; Balázs Hankó, Hungary; Henri Lepage, France▪ Discussion
12.00 – 13.15	Lunch
13.15 – 13.50	Status of Standards of Good Pharmacy Practice in NIS Countries Kees de Joncheere, WHO Health Technology and Pharmaceuticals Programme
13.50 - 15.00	Impact of Workforce Shortages and Imbalances on the Provision of Pharmacy Care Services <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Global pharmacy workforce and migration – recipient perspective Karen Hassel, UK▪ Do workforce shortages and imbalances have an impact on pharmacy services? Attila Horváth Sziklai, Hungary▪ Discussion
15.00 - 15.15	Coffee break

E-pharmacy – Slovak Perspectives

15.15 – 16.45	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ State Institution for Drug Control in Slovakia▪ Slovak Chamber of Pharmacists▪ Response by Chair and discussion
16.45-17.00	Summarising and Directions by the Chair